A SHORT DRIVE TO PITTSBURGH, PA

MASCOT : PRESIDENTS

COLORS : BLACK AND RED

Pittsburgh has been ranked among top cities in the US for our friendliness, diverse cultures, and for being a great place to live. The city boasts ample green space, galleries, coffee shops, music venues, shopping neighborhoods, strong sports teams, friendly people and an impressive array of restaurants.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

1

Course for Exchange Students

W&J is a liberal arts institution, so we encourage exchange students to take advantage of our broad range of cross- disciplinary course offerings. Students will find that they have many exciting options and may enroll in any course for which they have satisfied the pre-requisites. Exceptions: exchange students may not take First Year Seminar (FYS) courses. Note that some education courses require security clearances which take time to secure. Course offerings on next page!

ACCOMMODATIONS

Availability of Student Residence Halls for Exchange Students :

Yes! All international students should expect to live on campus. We will automatically arrange a room for them. A housing placement is guaranteed. Rooms are typically shared by two students of the same gender. <http://www.washjeff.edu/residence-life>

Availability of Student Residence Halls for Exchange Students During Term Break :

Students should expect to make alternate living or travel arrangements over the winter holidays when the College is officially closed. Residence halls and the dining halls are unavailable over winter break, though students may leave their personal belongings in their room.

Costs

Varies based on the exchange parameters your home school has arranged with W&J. Please ask your international office.

Note: If you choose to stay on campus during breaks and/or holidays, dining services may be limited or unavailable. Meals may not be included in your meal plan over breaks or holidays.
